

SUPERSHOPPERGUIDE

Anderson's Only Guide to SC's and GA's Tax Free Weekends! Just in time for Back to School!

South Carolina and Georgia are among many states to offer sales-tax free days to help parents and students with their back-to-school needs. This year, the 2013 SC Sales Tax Holiday runs from Friday, August 2 at 12:01am until Sunday, August 4 at midnight.

During this time, applicable sales and use taxes will not be imposed on clothing, clothing accessories, footwear, school supplies, computers, printers and printer supplies, computer software, and some bedding. The sales tax holiday, however, does not apply to sales of jewelry, cosmetics, eyewear, wallets, watches, furniture, rental of clothing or footwear, items for use in a business, or items placed on layaway or similar deferred payment and delivery plans.

The 2013 Georgia Sales Tax Holiday starts on Friday, August 9 at 12:01am and ends Saturday, August 10 at 12:00 midnight. Items exempt from state and local sales tax during these days are clothing and footwear with a sales price of $100 or less per item, a single purchase with a sales price of $1,000 or less of personal computers and personal computer-related accessories, and general school supplies to be used in the classroom or in classroom-related activities with a sales price of $20 or less per item.

Non-exempt items on Georgia's list include clothing accessories, jewelry, handbags, umbrellas, eyewear, watches, watchbands, cellular devices, furniture, computer-related accessories designed for recreational use, and items used in a trade or business or for resale, or rentals. Also not included are sales in theme parks, entertainment complexes, public lodging establishments, restaurants, or airports.

For more information on the SC Tax Holiday go to www.sctax.org and for the Georgia Tax Holiday, go to www.etax.dor.ga.gov.
